Minor REVISION comments	Referee's Recommendations Based upon my careful observation, it can be published subject to the following major modifications/corrections/queries: *. There are several grammatical errors and typos, and it would be a good idea to get the article proof-read properly to fix these. *. There are some missing punctuation at the end of some equations. So please double check all equations. *. The documentation of the paper is poor as seen from the references. *. Some related papers should be discussed in the introductory section, for example: 1- Alesemi M, Iqbal N, Hamoud AA.
