Compulsory REVISION comments  1. Is the manuscript important for scientific community? (Please write few sentences on this manuscript)  2. Is the title of the article suitable? (If not please suggest an alternative title)  3. Is the abstract of the article comprehensive?  4. Are subsections and structure of the manuscript appropriate?  5. Do you think the manuscript is scientifically correct?  6. Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestion of additional references, please mention in the review form.  (Apart from above mentioned 6 points, reviewers are free to provide additional suggestions/comments)	Yes, this would add to the existing scanty information/literature on cauliflower flowers. No. It's better to be "Cauliflower Production and Marketing in Haryana, India" The abstract has no objective of the study as well as the body of the work. The Methodology is the weakest section of the paper. See my comments on the write up. There is no clear objective of the paper. Almost all the references are local, but adequate. Would be nice to include some foreign references as well to show the author(s) have mastery of the crop or topic.	Revised
Minor REVISION comments  1. Is language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	Yes
