

Editor's Comment:

"Bayesian Probabilistic Projection of Population Census in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia" is an interesting article, with a methodological character, that deserves to be published in AJPAS. But first, the author must consider the following:

-A paragraph or a sentence should never begin with a [.] , as happens, for example, in the second paragraph of the Introduction:

...delineated region of a country. [9] added that one of the most significant sources of information that serves as the foundation...

Alternatives should be used such as: In [9] the author(s)..., As suggested in [9], or similar ones. Check similar situations and correct them.
