

Editor's Comment:

1. Abstract, starting line make it simple,
2. Introduction- add some basic details in study area like karnata and india in starting paragraph
3. Methodology- Plz do not add other information in methodology, it should be specific to the study like area of study, study method, tools used for analysis etc
4. Result- after table description should there,
5. Please include CONCLUSION section mentioning important finding and briefly describe the findings and also mention the practical implication of your study.
