

Editor's Comment:

It required some corrections. Authors are requested to carry out the corrections in this manuscript before final decision.

1. The title "Liquid organic fertilizer derived from palm oil and water hyacinth improves the growth of rice plants".

2. In the Abstract: Study design: The experiment was laid out in Randomized Block Design withreplications. (Correct accordingly).

3. In the Abstract: Place and Duration of study: It is MSL not 'masl' that indicates Mean Sea Level

4. In the abstract: Methodology: The last line should be deleted

5. The Section Materials and Methods: The sentences should be in past tense.

Submit again after critical revision of the manuscript based on the comments. We are looking forward for submission of the manuscript in this journal.
