Here are some of the suggestions regarding the review article. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• In the Results and discussions, the studies conducted in various regions are separately mentioned and I felt reading it is somewhat not okay. You can mention the those similar studies conducted using coloums if possible.• Do check spelling mistakes (eg. Standard deviation)• The various literatures used for the reviews can be explained better by using the main findings of the study they conducted instead giving a vast writings regarding referred literatures.• Also better if mention, what does this review add to the existing literatures.• Also do check the grammatical mistakes once more.• Include whether the chosen studies are appropriate for addressing the research question.• Also you can add if there are any gaps in the review that could be explored in future studies.	Ok
