

Editor's Comment:

Authors have addressed most of the comments and suggestions provided by the two reviewers. However, I have discovered the following flaws with the revised manuscript:

1. Subheadings are not needed in the abstract.
2. All keywords duplicate the same as in the paper title. Other selections must be re-chosen.
3. "Char" should not be capitalized.
4. Table 1 and Figure 1 have not been referred to in the text.
5. All equations should be numbered in the text, even though there is only one equation.
6. Please unify the use of "percent" and "%".
7. One of "Table 3" referred to in the text should be "Table 4".
8. One of "Table 4" referred to in the text should be "Table 5".
9. Please re-check the headings in Table 5. Is "Multiple R^2 " = "Multiple R" x "Multiple R"?
10. Many spacing, English language errors have been detected. A thorough proof-check and English-check is highly recommended.

As such, the authors should revise the manuscript again prior to resubmission for further review process.
