

Editor's Comment:

Although one of the reviewer gave a perfect score for this paper, I still discovered lots of flaws in the revised article. This paper, therefore, is suggested to address the following comments prior to publication acceptance:

1. No sub-headings are needed in the abstract.
2. No abbreviations should be included In the keyword selections. Besides, "coffee" have been duplicated (same as the paper title). Another selection must be re-chosen.
3. Spelling error for "lucerative".
4. Punctuation errors in many occasions. The correct form should be ".....coffee (Karki et al., 2016)".
5. Unify the use of "Table" and "table". Also, no parenthesis are needed in all table captions.
6. There is no such word as "desuckering".
7. The word "Appendix" is not necessary in the caption for Table 8.
8. Reference citations in the text should use just the last names of the authors, no first names or initials.
9. Use "and" instead of "&" in the reference listing.

This listing must conform to the requirements of the Journal and must be alphabetically ordered according to the last name of the first authors.
