

Editor's Comment:

I have a favorable impression of this manuscript. However, it is presented to me somewhat disorganized, with tables and figures out of place (some outside the body of the text). The numbering of tables and figures is deficient (in some cases it is invisible). Not all tables and figures have captions. I would also like the corrections made by the authors to be in yellow because in the current mode I can't check them properly.

In this form I am not comfortable making a final decision.
