

Editor's Comment:

I went through the manuscript and found that the work presented is really good.

The author has well addressed the questions/suggestions raised by reviewers and revised the manuscript accordingly.

Even though the abstract is too long and if the author thinks the reduction of size of the abstract may dilute the essence of the manuscript it may be accepted as it is. In addition, it is an urgent necessity for the author for his thesis and hence it must be treated accordingly.

I recommend this paper for publication in the journal International Astronomy and Astrophysics Research Journal.
