Compulsory REVISION comments	This a potentially good paper but in its current form is lacking in many aspects. The following issues need to be addressed <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Methodology: the author(s) should include a section on methodology and discuss the details of the methodology of the study.2. The concept of participatory budgeting needs to be explored in details. I suggest the author insect a section for it3. The authors need to discuss other studies on the participatory budgeting in the developing country and African context to advance a clear empirical context.4. The conclusion of the article leaves little to be desired. The authors need to expand on it	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Methodology: based on the journal's guideline for case study, there is no need for section on methodology.2. Additional details on the concept of participatory budgeting included.3. There are studies from Africa and developing countries included. reference numbers 14,15,16,20,21,22,24,30,324. Conclusion revised...
