Minor REVISION comments	The corrections I recommend are included in the manuscript, with the "change control" mode (Word). In Sec. CONCLUSION (pp.11): I recommend replacing this paragraph: "Despite a higher than the recommended values have recorded for Arsenic in Catla; its accumulation in the muscle tissues for the same fish are lower than the permissible value which in turn is a blessing as muscles is the most edible parts by human." By: "Despite that a value greater than the recommended values has been recorded for Arsenic in Catla fish; their accumulation in muscle tissues for the same fish are less than the permissible value. This is an important advantage since the muscles are the most edible parts by the human being." In Sec. REFERENCES (pp. 11-13): I recommend: Arrange and unify the year of each reference at the end. Also unify use of "&".	Thank you very much. We have accepted your change in the write-up. Thank you for effort. We have replaced the paragraph as per your suggestions. Yes, we have unified the reference by moving the year of publication at the end of each reference and we have also omitted all the '&' signs in reference section to unify it. Thank you very much!
