| Minor REVISION comments | This statement in the introduction is wrong "Since the COVID-19 pandemic started in January 2020". In the introduction, references should be arranged in an orderly manner...from the old to the new. | The statement " Since the COVID-19 pandemic started in January 2020" has been revised to read "There has been increase in morbidity and mortality worldwide since the COVID-19 pandemic started". We used Mendeley (a reference manager), and it arranges in-text references alphabetically. |
| Optional/General comments | A thorough and detailed research work. | |
