PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	Abstract should be crafted well. Words such as background, objectives, Methods, and conclusion should be removed. Introduction – establish well your rationale why there is a need to conduct a study like this. Check the grammar and spellings. You indicated objectives but you only have one objective. Methodology and Discussion: Treatments should be indicated and properly described, the experimental design, statistical tools used, and how the comparison of means should be indicated. Parameters gathered should be indicated here and describe them precisely and concisely how they were measured and do not place here the result of your observed parameters. Result: in the discussion the treatments should not be presented as a whole to easily follow the discussions. Profitability analysis should also be gathered and discussed to support your claim in your conclusion.	Comment accepted and considered
Minor REVISION comments	The researcher should include the quality of baby corn produced such as the length, diameter, and not the husk	Noted
Optional/General comments	The paper needs to be proofread and English critic	Done
