Compulsory REVISION comments	Article is very well explained and discussion is clear with suitable review . The article can incorporate the following suggestions and also see the draft for minor grammar mistakes 1. Try to incorporate the formula for simple average, percentage & differences. 2. Mention the name of crop (groundnut) in table headline 3. Delete or reframe the red colour highlighted sentence in draft 4. Suggesting to cite the climate data source under each of table (Ex; Calculate based on data availability from Research station, UAS, Dharwad) 5. Mention Groundnut variety	It's my great pleasure to incorporate your suggestions accordingly in the each phase of the article. Regarding title I did a small change as below "INFLUENCE OF WEATHER ON GROUNDNUT GENOTYPES UNDER EXTENDED SOWING WINDOW DURING KHARIF SEASON" And I updated all sections accordingly to your suggestion and attached with this feedback. Please go through it and do necessary action as early as possible Thanking you.
Minor REVISION comments	Grammatical mistakes are needed to be corrected and please cite the source when you are using any secondary supported data (ex: *Oil seeds are most important crops next to food grains in terms of production in Indian agriculture-Source?)	I updated accordingly
Optional/General comments	The title can be modified as with climate instead of weather (Optional suggestion)	The word Climate is related to long term and average weather conditions for a specific region. But weather based on defined time period i.e. , crop period so I used Weather instead of Climate
