PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	This manuscript isolates and characterizes E. coli from cow dung and shows that it is a reservoir for MBL producers and bacteria that are antibiotic resistant. This is a straightforward manuscript that is important to publish to reinforce the spread of antibiotic resistance with continued antibiotic feeding of livestock.
Minor REVISION comments	There are some minor typos, such as in the abstract Antimicrobial susceptibility test of the isolates were. – should be was study infer that cow dung does not only serves as a reservoir for MBL-producers but also as source for the growth and dissemination of clinically significant antibiotics resistance among bacteria species. Should be study infer that cow dung does not only serve as a reservoir for MBL-producers but also as source for the growth and dissemination of clinically significant antibiotic resistance among bacteria species.	Done Done
