Compulsory REVISION comments	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Modify the title- few physiological and N, P and K was studied but mentioned soil health and physiological growth2. From the study I came to know that it is hardly a one-year data, yet can you carry correlation between yield and studied parameters that makes the worth of this paper3. Tables and graphs were not presented properly. Either give graph or table, both can not be given which gives same information4. Present the interaction of all physiological parameters in one table and soil parameters in another table that speaks good5. Can you give the rainfall data during the study period6. I don't know why u mentioned about phytoremediation. Is there any heavy metals. If so, mention the heavy metals u noticed during your study.7. Discussion is not properly done8. Please modify the abstract presentation9. Have studied N, P and K uptake in tea which is very important for this study?	<ol style="list-style-type: none">10. I have corrected the portion as suggested by the reviewer and have highlighted the corrected portion.11. I have corrected the front size of the body to 12 and title to 14, also I have corrected the front language to times new roman.12. I have changed the title to capital in each word.13. I have reduced the number of tables to only three. One for plant parameters and two for soil parameters.14. And for figures, I have put two graphs for soil particle analysis and other mentioned in the appendix for rainfall data.15. Yes, N,P,K uptake was important for the study, to know about the nutrient status of the soil
