EDITORIAL COMMENT’S on revised paper (if any)	Authors’ response to editor’s comments
The quality of the English language is poor (even though in some parts more than in others) and it prevents the reader from understanding the content of the paper properly. Thus, the manuscript requires a very deep English language revision that should be done by a native speaker. This revision would benefit from a close work of the language specialist and the author(s), so that language improves and the content can become clearer.	I really appreciate so much. Ethiopia is a multilingual and culturally a pluralist country, our comments true, I was lived in Ethiopia now. There was lack of English teaching materials, language policy, no communication always in English day to day ..etc are some problems. I tries to briefly update my manuscript upon the basic problems you observed in the usage of English in this study. Remember, due you to Ethiopia English context the paper was well language constructed, but I reviesed this paper according to thier comments. Thank you very much, Editorial Board !
