Compulsory REVISION comments	Research novelty has not been clearly stated. The discussion has not been supported by supporting references. It is necessary to add several references that can support the review of research result in the DISCUSSION section. The references listed in the manuscript do not match those stated in the REFERENCES section (It is recommended to use Reference System). References in this manuscript are very limited. Therefore, it must be added with the several latest references that can support the importance of this study and the review of research result in the DISCUSSION section.	We already finish the problem in the journal revision.
Minor REVISION comments	Overall, this manuscript does not fit the template in Guideline for Authors of Asian Journal of Agricultural Extension, Economics & Sociology. COMPETING INTERESTS and AUTHORS' CONTRIBUTION section is not yet available.
Optional/General comments	In my opinion, this article may be published after a comprehensive and serious revision by the authors.
