Compulsory REVISION comments	1. Geomorphological studies should be conducted within water Shed boundaries not in administrative boundary. 2. The entire paper needs to be rewrite, many places grammatical and spelling errors found. 3. Location map should be included.	1. Geomorphological Studies and information are needed for administrative planning on land use, and administrative planning are done within administrative boundaries, hence the use of the Administrative boundary as the study area. 2. I would have been happier if you had underlined the observed grammatical and spelling errors. As far as I know, there are no grammatical errors in the manuscript, rather the words underlined by the software are so because Microsoft does not recognize local names of persons and communities. 3. All the maps used in this work are for the study area and their coordinates are the same. I see no reason to duplicate more maps with the same information. The mistake is not linking any of the maps to the subtopic: Study area, that I have done.
