Compulsory REVISION comments	This text may be a review article rather than a research article. But not in the article's format. It looks like note-taking. There is no issue with the statement, goal, method, or conclusion. There is no analysis. The note is as written, but there is no in-text citation. Must be rewritten in its entirety in the article format. The topic itself must be clear and enlightening. Everyone is aware that plastic shielding works to prevent the spread of the COVID virus. But an article needs to know what new thing or argument there is.	Correction made Done
Minor REVISION comments
