In the results section of the abstract, it is better to show the percentage (%) next to the number of patients.</li><li>2. Keywords should be according to the MeSH system.</li><li>3. Correct typographical and grammatical errors.</li><li>4. Please use new references, especially studies conducted in Asia.</li></ol>	Thanks reviewer for his /her valuable comments. I added the percentage next to the numbers in abstract and highlighted with yellow colour in manuscript. Keywords arranged according the MeSH system by using MeSH on demand. Some of the words were changed and highlighted . Typographical and grammatical errors corrected as much as I found. One reference replace and another new added and mentioned in the reference list.
