SDI EDITORIAL COMMENTS FORM

EDITORIAL COMMENT'S on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to editor's comments
These points of change prior to its publication should be that of: 1) Main headings and subheadings have to be numbered in successive numbering, running smoothly from section to section. 2) Repetitive expressions of nouns in capital letters, like: Qualitative Research Methodology, Ethnography, they can be noted in small lettering. 3) The personal expressions like, I……., can be changed to passive voice, making the narrative more impersonal. 4) The lengthy bulk narration of the following two sections it has to be divided into two shorter subheadings, each one, thus, four subheadings can be formulated. -Ethnography (workplace study): a conceptual clarification -Justification of Ethnography as Methodological Approach for Workplace Study 5) The yellow-highlighted comments are not considered of such imperative need to be treated, thus, they can be omitted at the finally revised version, prior to its publication.	1. Main heading and subheadings have been numbered serially. 2. Corrections effected. 3. Corrections effected. 4. The two sections have been separated and given subheading. 5. Comments on the yellow lines deleted.