| Compulsory REVISION comments | No paragraph in abstract. The abstract only talked about students attitude and ignored student performance. The results in the abstract should further be summarized in view lines. The author should include keywords.The research methodology should be summarized to reflect what is obtainable in article publication.                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Minor REVISION comments      | I think their should be a hyphen between Posttest.There should be consistency in citing authors in the work.There should be consistency in the paragraph method adopted for the research.There should be consistency with the spacing.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Optional/General comments    | This is a well written research work. However, the style adopted by the researcher is simple used for thesis or dissertation. In other to publish this research as an article, the researcher should download the template of the journal and follow the instruction on the template to arrange the research for article publication.I will advice that the researcher should download some already published article from this journal for more practical guide on how to arrange the research for article publication. |                                                                                                                                                                               |
