Compulsory REVISION comments	The work presented is original and should be of interest for the readers of the Asian Journal of Fisheries and Aquatic Research.
Minor REVISION comments	It would be interesting to include any available literature of 2019-2021. Little literature is surveyed from recent years which are a major drawback of this review manuscript. Also I shall like if it is explained with the help of some charts, figures and tables which are not given in entire manuscript. Finally, I strongly suggest the authors contract a proofreading and editing service before publication. For these reasons, I recommend the acceptance of this article with minor revisions, so that it should be straightforward
Optional/General comments	OK
