Minor REVISION comments	The manuscript is very interesting and important for aquaculture. Minimal corrections are required. Abstract I didn't understand the levels of inclusion of terminalia catappa leaf in fish feed. Was it removing which ingredient? Material and Methods - What is the granulometry of the ingredients? - What percentage of water is added to the formulations? Were the same amounts? - What is the cooling temperature of fish feed? Results - Add in the footer of tables and figures the meaning of the abbreviations TCD1, TCD2...
Optional/General comments
