PART 1: Review Comments

Compulsory REVISION comments	This paper is very well written and contains sufficient information. It is easy to read. The only issue is that the conclusion is too short and perhaps a discussion section would have been nice to have regarding the results and findings for Nigeria. The graph diagrams in the document need to be improved/ resized because they are too small. Also there are some small typing errors. I strongly suggest to do some proof reading of the paper and adjust the diagrams and references too. The tables also need to be improved.
