Compulsory REVISION comments
Minor REVISION comments	These would be my remarks regarding the paper you submitted to me for review. In the presentation of the case, the authors state that ultrasound was used and give a description of the ultrasound finding, but the paper lacks a recording of the ultrasound examination where you can see the changes listed in the text. Furthermore, the CT scan shows only reconstructions in the coronal plane, images in the axial and sagittal planes are missing. Also, a detailed explanation should be given for the attached CT images, and if possible, the gaps should be marked with arrows. All in all, the paper is interesting and deserves to be published after eliminating the above shortcomings.
