Compulsory REVISION comments	It's a reasonable paper, that contributes to health research, however in order to published a lot of changes should be performed: 1. The methodology doesn't comprise the time that the study was carried out. This section should answer the elements as follows: who, what, when, where, how, and why, in order to be a successful methods section. 2. The discussion is absent. This section includes the picture about the study object. The purpose of this section is to interpret and describe the significance of the study findings in light of what was already known about the subject being investigated, and to explain any new understanding or insights about the problem after have taken the findings into consideration. 3. The tables don't contain sources. The source of the table should be indicated under the table, even if the author is the same person who wrote the paper. 4. The limitations of the study aren't explicit. These limits should identify only those circumstances that had the greatest potential impact on the quality of the findings study and the ability to effectively answer the research questions and/or hypotheses.
