Compulsory REVISION comments	The study mainly represents the perception and practice of COVID-19 in rural areas of south eastern Nigeria which is good. Adequate knowledge and preventive practices regarding COVID-19 can only control the rapid transmission of this deadly diseases. But there are several things which might be adjusted: Point 1: Abstract: The abstract didn't contain introduction section. Please add Introduction Section here. Why didn't you indicate the p-value? Please add corresponding p-value for each item. Point 2: Introduction: There is nothing about hypothesis. What is the hypothesis in your research? There are many latest publications on the topic. Please follow those. Point 3: Materials and Methods: What sampling technique did you use? There is nothing about Cronbach's Alpha for the accuracy of the data. Point 4: Results: What is the significance of your result? Please explain clearly. Graphical Presentation might be good for better visualization. Point 5: Conclusion: Conclusion is not associated with abstract, please make the conclusion more suitable for extracting the key points and adding to the abstract content
Minor REVISION comments	Point 1: The references are not used correctly. Its present the error in the citation.
