PART 1: Review Comments

Compulsory REVISION comments	The paper does analyse in a systematic manner the effects of different antioxidants on media browning in Phalaenopsis spp. Cv. Oriana. But, I consider the results as preliminary ones, that some data could be better presented in a graphical form and not big tables, that introduction could be improved by finding new references since there are actual references in the literature, and include recent literature. So, I am asking for an extensive revision of the MS. I did also some corrections and comments on the manuscript! English has to be also improved.
Minor REVISION comments
Optional/General comments	The article presents somehow preliminary results which can be published after a thorough revision of the manuscript.
