Compulsory REVISION comments	It is difficult to refer to exact lines, since the lines were not numbered. Please refer to the attached document which I corrected and commented on. I have serious problems with some of the terms: 1. Is control and absolute control the same thing? 2. Weight, density and mass cannot be synonyms, but it seems as if the author uses them as such. 3. Ton is not an SI unit and is different to tonne which is an SI unit. 4. Soil fertility defines much more than fertilizer or even nutrition. The author tested fertilizer treatments, not fertility. Format of references should be uniform and according to the journal's guidelines.
