The study is well designed and the results and limitations of the study are very clearly explained. 2. Attention should be paid to spelling rules and punctuation marks. 3. Some of the clerical error which lead to not-understanding of the readers, especially readers from non-English speaking countries, are, “a written informed CONSENT was obtained from the patients” , “ embryonic patients were excluded” , “while the lower limbs were elevated to a 45 DEGREE angle”, the primary endpoint IS MAP>65mmHg or reaching...”, and the first 4 paragraphs of the Discussion section, which has to be written all over again in a native and fluent English. 4. The significant different results in duration of MV and ICU stay should take up more space in Discussion, which are just mentioned in the Results section. 5. Maybe some newer published references can be added to Discussion.
